Our terms of business declaration

Dubai Insurance Company psc. pays commission on a monthly basis. The commission run is on the 15th of each month in respect of the previous month’s business. Commission is payable in respect of premium which has cleared through Dubai Insurance Company psc.’s bank account, during the previous month. Commission is only payable in respect of premiums actually received by Dubai Insurance Company psc. We do not pay commission on an indemnity basis. Commission payable in respect of group scheme business may be subject to claw-back in the event of premium being refunded in respect of employees who leave the group; alternatively, the group scheme client’s refund will be net of commission paid to you.

Dubai Insurance Company psc. reserves the right to accrue and defer payment of commissions until a minimum is due that exceeds the costs of making and receiving the transfer. For European payments or foreign currency to a UK account, the minimum will be $50 or £50 or €50. For the rest of the world payments, the minimum will be $100 or £100 or €100. You may wish to choose a minimum limit in excess of the above, and payment will be made when these limits have been met.

I understand that this form constitutes an application for terms of business with Dubai Insurance Company psc. If this application is accepted, the appointment shall be governed by the terms of Dubai Insurance Company psc. These terms are hereby understood and agreed to.
