What's different for 2018

We are always thinking about how we can improve our income plans and the service that we offer to our customers. We have made a few changes this year, and these will affect you from your plan renewal date. These changes are outlined for you in this booklet: please read it in conjunction with your 2018 plan agreement. The most important changes are highlighted for you on this page.

Your custom is very important to us, and we are here if you would like to discuss any of the changes we have made to your plan, or if you would like to talk about your renewal premium. You can find our contact details throughout this booklet.

1 Simplified terms & conditions

We are aware that our terms & conditions governing where and in which circumstances you are covered by your income plan were rather complex. From your plan renewal date, we have simplified the terms & conditions so that your level of cover is much clearer.

The changes are stated in full in the next part of this booklet. Please also refer to your 2018 plan agreement.

Changes to your benefits

This part outlines in full the changes to your benefits from your plan renewal date. Please read in conjunction with your 2018 plan agreement.

2.1 No restriction on your optional accident benefit

If you also have the optional accident benefit, there is also no longer a restriction on the benefit you choose to insure.

2.2 Excluded countries

We have simplified the terms & conditions that specify where in the world you are covered, and for what, under your income protection plan. The new terms & conditions are as follows.

From your plan renewal date, you will not be covered for disablement while you are living in the Central African Republic, Iran, North Korea, Libya, South Sudan, Syria or Yemen.

You will also not be covered for disablement arising from war, terrorism, kidnap, murder, assault of any kind or any other act of violence, even if you are an innocent bystander, while you are in a country or region that the British Foreign & Commonwealth Office has advised its citizens to leave, or has advised against all travel to, or has advised against all but essential travel to.

For more information and advice visit gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice.

Excluded countries

If you are in any doubt as to whether you will be covered in a certain country or region, please contact us. We will be happy to help you!
